To Add, we need to Subtract!

Often we aspire to add more things to our (already packed) routine / daily regime.

The hard reality though, is that to add something, we need to subtract something!

It's essential to Simplify!

Complexity clouds visibility. Complexity thrashes initiative. Complexity impairs motivation.

Complexity stymies action.

As a leader, it's essential to simplify; so that visibility improves, initiatives thrive, and motivation sustains.

It's essential to Simplify!

Simple may sound less-sophisticated. Simplifying may seem trivial. Simplicity may look easy. But Simplifying is difficult.

As a leader, when we simplify things become clearer - for us and to our teams. when we get clarity, we are motivated to act! And it's the action that changes our lives, the world.

The fact is that when we simplify, things get done.

Simplifying is the key!

Simple can be harder than complex. You have to work hard to get your thinking clean to make it simple. But it's worth it in the end because once you get there you can move mountains - Steve Jobs.

One of the things that I do as a CEO Coach is helping Leaders simplify, unpack their complexities.

Simplify to move faster

Simplifying speeds things up.

Complexity slows things down.

Minimise to simplify

Cutting things down to its essence - doing (only) what's truly needed

Rooting out extra steps

Pause

Pausing helps you refrain from making a permanent decision based on a temporary emotion - Justin Bariso.

Pause - taking a moment to stop and think before you speak or act. It's simple, yet difficult.

As a leader am I taking advantage of this highly effective tool?

1% Rule

Try improving our key performance parameters 1% at a time.

Be it reducing the wastage, decreasing re-processing, improving yield, improving margins - target 1% at a time!

Simple, constructive.

Simplifying helps

Even in a world that becomes more complex every day, you have the power to simplify your life and your work. You simplify by getting focused on what matters most; by getting clarity on what is truly important - Joe Calloway.

When we simplify, things get done.

When we simplify, we are effective, more productive, less stressed.

Coaching helps in simplifying!

Coaching is quite pro-active, forward-looking, positive, constructive.
